RESPONDENTS' ANSWER TO COURT'S ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Come now Respondents, by and through the Attorney General of the State of Alabama, and file their response to this Court's Order to Show Cause dated October 10, 2006, giving the Respondents 20 days in which to file a response to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by the Petitioner, Douglas E. Stevenson. In response, Respondents file the following answer, memorandum, and brief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On March 11, 1996, Stevenson pleaded guilty to one count of receiving stolen property and four counts of possession of forged instruments and was sentenced to five concurrent 15-year terms of imprisonment. Petition, p. 2. Stevenson did not directly appeal his convictions. State's Exhibits A through E.

2. Stevenson filed a petition for post-conviction relief pursuant to Rule 32 of the Alabama Rules of Criminal Procedure on September 9, 2003. State's Exhibits A through E. The trial court's denial of this petition was affirmed by the Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals on January 23, 2004. State's Exhibits A through F. That court issued its certificate of judgment on February 11, 2004. State's Exhibit F.

3. Stevenson filed another series of Rule 32 petitions -- two on May 5, 2005 attacking his receiving stolen property conviction, another on June 9, 2005 attacking his convictions for possession of forged instrument, and another on September 15, 2005 attacking his possession convictions. State's Exhibits A through E. These petitions were either dismissed or denied. Id.

STEVENSON'S FEDERAL HABEAS CLAIMS

4. On September 28, 2006, Stevenson filed a writ of habeas corpus petition raising the following claims:

- (1) He was being held in prison past his release date due to false information in his prison file;
- (2) He received ineffective assistance of counsel and the State failed to give him proper notice of its intent to enhance his sentence under the Habitual Offender Act;
- (3) He did not enter into his guilty pleas knowingly and understandingly and was misled into stating that he had three prior felonies;
- (4) He failed to exhaust state court remedies with success through no fault of his own.

Petition, pp. 3-5.

5. On October 10, 2006, this Court entered an order requiring Respondents to show cause why Stevenson's habeas corpus petition should not be granted.

ANSWER TO THE PETITION

6. Stevenson's federal habeas corpus petition is untimely under the one-year statute of limitation provision of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA).

7. Respondents admit Stevenson is presently incarcerated in a state facility, but deny he is in custody in violation of the laws or constitution of the United States. Stevenson's convictions and sentences were validly and constitutionally obtained.

MEMORANDUM BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF ANSWER

8. Stevenson's petition is barred by the one-year statute of limitation set out by the AEDPA. According to 28 U.S.C.A. § 2244(d):

(1) A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of--

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Because Stevenson pleaded guilty on March 11, 2003, pursuant to Rule 4(b)(1) of the Alabama Rules of Appellate Procedure he had 42 days from that date (April 22, 2003) in which to directly appeal his conviction. Accordingly, he had one year from that date in which to file his federal habeas corpus petition.

Although he filed his first Rule 32 petition on September 9, 2003, which effectively tolled the running of the statute of limitation, the Court of Criminal Appeals issued its certificate of judgment in that case on February 11, 2004.

Stevenson's further Rule 32 petitions, untimely because they were filed more than one year after his conviction became final, did not effectively toll the running of the AEDPA's limitation period. See Siebert v. Campbell, 334 F. 3d 1018 (11th Cir. 2005)(After Williams v. State, 783 So. 2d 135, 137 (Ala. Crim. App. 2000), Alabama's post-conviction statute of limitation is jurisdictional and untimely Rule 32 petitions filed after that decision do not toll AEDPA limitations period).

Because Stevenson did not file his federal habeas petition until September 28, 2006, more than one year had lapsed on the running of the AEDPA limitation period. Accordingly, this petition is untimely and should be dismissed with prejudice.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing authorities and facts, Stevenson's federal habeas corpus petition should be dismissed with prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

Troy King (KIN047)
